AUGSBUGER FAMILY TREE EARLY SWEENY FAMILIES 1919

In 1919 in Tazewell County Illinois, two families (Amos & John Augsburger) including nine kids boarded the train & bade farewell to family left behind to move to a better life in Sweeny, Texas, a strange place with no street lights or sidewalks & where locals thought them to be "damn Yankees" when a gasoline washing machine was unloaded off their railcar. Also in the railcar were two automobiles which brought the total in town to 4.

See the account of that move and their new life in Sweeny in the article "Moving to Sweeny 1919"

They left daughter Blanch behind in Illinois teaching school. Another daughter Mabel went to Sweeny but returned to Illinois to finish high school. Both girls married locally and stayed in Illinois. The rest of the family stayed in Texas.

KATHERINE (WITTRIG) AUGSBURGER

My grandmother was Katherine Wittrig Augsburg, fourth daughter of Joseph and Alice Wittrig. She married my grandfather, John Augsburg, in Hopedale, Illinois in 1899.

They lived in the Hopedale (Tazewell County) area for about 19 years of their married life. There were born to them Blanche, Emma, Zella, Mabel (my mother), Bernice, Gertrude, and John.

In 1918 they moved to Texas, where two more daughters, Kathryn and Helen, were born. The picture below on this page was taken about 1923, and shows the entire family. They lived in the Sweeny/West Columbia, Texas area for the rest of their married life. She died in 1949, and he in 1954.

Two of their daughters, Blanche and Mabel, married young men from Illinois and settled on Illinois farms to raise their children. The other seven children remained in Texas and raised their families there. There were a total of 29 grandchildren, 14 girls and 15 boys (I was born grandchild #13!), and 66 great-grandchildren.

Because I grew up in Illinois, I did not get to see my grandparents as often as the cousins who lived closer. They could probably give you a clearer picture than I of my grandmother. However, some of the memories I have are of her wading in the Gulf of Mexico with the small grandchildren, how much she loved watermelon, and most of all, how much she loved her family and they loved her. She was short in stature, but tall in the love of her family and friends.

I had a better opportunity to get to know Grandpa, as he spent summers with us after Grandma died. Grandpa loved to sing, and we used to spend time together harmonizing on hymns. This is one of my favorite memories of him.

Blanch was the daughter left behind.

fter our things had been shipped. Blanche was teaching her first year of school and didn't come with us. When we were saying our goodbyes to everyone, Uncle Jee told

Blanch was married in Sweeny in the Rice/Vezey/Holcomb house

Rent Blanche came down & was married in the old Vezey house (then owned by the Rice) in 1919, went to Helton on honeymoon and then back to Ill. Mom finished out year of teaching for Aunt Blanch in Sweeny. 1920-1921 Mom went to Ill. to visit Blanche and taught school at Oatgrove school west of Hopedale. Returned to Sweeny and taught 2 yrs - 1st at Clute for 2 yrs to teach because money was better 115 at Clute to 80 at Sweeny -

FAMILY STORY ancestry.com

MABEL AUGSBURGER SPELLMEYER

Mabel Augsburger Spellmeyer was born in Tazewell County, Illinois on September 29, 1907. She was the fourth child of John and Katherine Augsburger, and the 15th Witttrig grandchild. When she was 11, her family moved to Texas. She completed the three-year high school in Sweeny, which was all they had at the time. In the summer of 1924, she came to Illinois to visit her sister, Blanche Brownlee. When it was time for school to start, it was decided that she would remain in Illinois, and take her fourth year at Melvin High School. By the time school was out, she had met my dad, Edwin Spellmeyer, and they were married the following January (1926).

They farmed south of Melvin for all the years of their marriage. They were married for over 9½ years when I was born in 1935. This was a loving home to grow up in, which was always open to visitors (many times to overflowing). Mother always said she never knew how many she was cooking for, because Dad would invite anyone who happened to come to sit down and eat with us.

Mother and Dad had plans for travel together after retirement, but they were not to be. Dad died of pneumonia at the age of 58. Following his death, Mother moved to town and worked in a jewelry store for about seven years. Then she decided she was going to make some dreams come true, so she started travelling. She has been from Point Barrow, Alaska down to the coast of South America and every U.S. state except Oregon. She has been to Europe four times and toured the Holy Land. Her last overseas travel was in 1989 when she and her sister Bernice Yeamans toured Australia and New Zealand (at 82 and 80).

She sold her home in Melvin in 1993 and moved in with us. Since then we have taken several longer trips in the U.S., and many short weekend excursions. All I have to do is say the word "Go" and Mother will meet me at the door with her suitcase packed!

One of my favorite anecdotes Mother tells is about the time when she and her sister Zella were about 12 and 13. They asked their dad if they could take the car and go to town to the ball game. He gave his approval, then left to go somewhere with his brother. When he came home he asked my grandmother where the car was. When she reminded him he had given permission for the girls to take it, he said "I didn't think they could get it started". However, he had underestimated the ingenuity of these two young gals. They had watched him so many times, they knew how to jack the car up and get it going. As Mother says "We knew we didn't have to worry once we got to town - the boys would get it started so we could come home!"

This same spunk and "get up and go" has kept her going for nearly 88 years, and has brought her to this reunion today!!
